

RESOLUTION
OF
THE MEADOWS AT COAL CREEK HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION, INC.
REGARDING DISPUTE RESOLUTION POLICY AND PROCEDURES

SUBJECT: Adoption of dispute resolution policy and procedures.

PURPOSE: To adopt a policy that establishes procedures for addressing disputes arising between the Association and Homeowners.

AUTHORITY: The Declaration, Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Association and Colorado law, including but not limited to C.R.S. §38-33.3-209.5

EFFECTIVE DATE: July 01, 2016

RESOLUTION: The Association hereby adopts a Policy as follows:

1. Background. The Association believes that the cost, complexity and delay inherent in court proceedings make litigation a particularly inefficient means of resolving neighborhood disagreements. Further, relationships in our community may be damaged through use of adversarial means of resolving disputes. Accordingly, the Association encourages the use of alternative methods for resolving disputes.
2. General Policy. In the event of any dispute between the Association and Homeowners in situations that do not involve an imminent threat to the peace, health or safety of the community, the Association and Homeowner(s) involved in the dispute shall work to resolve the dispute using the procedures set forth below prior to filing a complaint in court or otherwise initiating a legal proceeding. For each of the resolution processes, Colorado law governs the process and the parties do not waive their right to employ legal counsel at their own expense to assist them.
3. Procedures for Resolving Disputes.
  - A. The Association or any Owner wishing to resolve a dispute (“Initiating Party”) will provide each other Party to the dispute with a written request (“Request for Resolution”) describing:
    - (1) The nature of the dispute, including the date, time, location, persons involved and the other party’s role in the dispute.
    - (2) A request for what the Initiating Party would like the other party or parties to do or not do to resolve the dispute.
    - (3) Times and dates that the Initiating Party may be available to communicate directly with the other party or parties to discuss in good faith ways to resolve the dispute.
  - B. Negotiation. The parties are encouraged to make reasonable efforts to communicate directly with each other in an attempt to reach an agreement that serves the interest of all parties prior to initiating any other dispute resolution procedures.

C. Mediation.

- (1) Beginning the Process. Unless otherwise agreed, if the parties do not resolve the dispute within 20 business days of the receipt of the "request for Resolution", the parties will begin efforts to schedule a mediation session with a trained, neutral mediator to assist them in reaching their own solution. The mediator will facilitate the process but will not make decisions for the parties. The parties shall meet with the mediator within sixty (60) business days of the date of receipt of the "Request for Resolution".
- (2) Selecting a Mediator. Unless otherwise agreed, the parties shall select a mutually acceptable mediator within thirty (30) business days of the date of receipt of the "Request for Resolution". Each party will provide the other(s) with the name of at least one acceptable mediator. If the parties cannot reach agreement on who to select as a mediator, [a mediator shall be appointed by (third party or parties)] [the services of (name of mediation organization) will be utilized]. The parties will work with the mediator to establish the date for the mediation meeting. The cost of the mediation will be shared equally among the parties unless they agree otherwise.
- (3) Documentation of Mediation. The mediator shall provide the parties with documentation noting who attended and that the mediation occurred.

D. Arbitration.

- (1) Beginning the Process. If the parties do not resolve the dispute through mediation, any party may begin efforts to schedule a binding arbitration with a trained, neutral arbitrator who will decide the outcome of the dispute based on evidence and testimony provided by the parties. The parties agree to accept the decision of the arbitrator as final and binding on them to the fullest extent permitted under the laws of Colorado. Judgment may be enforced in any court having jurisdiction.
  - (2) Selecting an Arbitrator. The parties shall mutually agree on an arbitrator. Unless otherwise agreed, the parties shall select a mutually acceptable arbitrator within thirty (30) business days of the completion of mediation. Each party will provide the other(s) with the name of at least one acceptable arbitrator. If the parties cannot reach agreement on who to select as an arbitrator, [an arbitrator shall be appointed by (third party or parties)] [the services of (name of arbitration organization) will be utilized]. The parties will work with the arbitrator to establish the date(s) for the arbitration. The cost of arbitration will be shared equally among the parties unless they agree otherwise. The arbitrator shall have authority to require one party to pay all or a portion of the other party's legal fees to the extent such an award is permissible under Colorado law.
  - (3) Arbitration Award. The arbitrator shall provide the parties with an award including findings of fact and conclusions.
4. Failure to comply with Agreement or Award. If the parties resolve any dispute through mediation [or arbitration], and a party or parties fails to abide by the terms of the agreement or award, the other party may initiate legal proceedings to enforce the agreement or award without need to comply with the provisions of this Policy. Additionally, the party taking action to enforce the agreement or award shall, if that party prevails, be entitled to recover from the non-complying party all costs incurred in enforcing the agreement or award, including without limitation, attorney fees and costs.

5. Definitions. Unless otherwise defined in this Resolution, initially capitalized or terms defined in the Declaration shall have the same meaning herein.
6. Supplement to Law. The provisions of this Resolution shall be in addition to and in supplement of the terms and provisions of the Declaration and the law of the State of Colorado.
7. Deviations. The Board or its agent may deviate from the procedures set forth in this Resolution if in its sole discretion such deviation is reasonable under the circumstances.
8. Amendment. This policy may be amended from time to time by the Board of Directors.
